| STUDENT-DESIGNED INDEPENDENT PROJECTS (U.S. OR INTERNATIONAL) |

Interested in developing a unique DukeEngage experience that builds on your specific interests and skills? Consider designing a DukeEngage independent project. Applicants select the community partner with whom they wish to work and together set project goals before applying. A DukeEngage advisor and Duke mentor support each independent candidate in designing and implementing projects. Don’t want to go alone? Create your own team. Up to three students can collaborate on any independent project. (Applicants must apply and be accepted separately.)
